

Flabuta de Gasconha

arcolan.e-monsite.com

1

la si do do# ré mi fa# sol sol# la la si do do# ré mi

A musical staff is shown above a grid diagram for the Flabuta de Gasconha. The staff begins with a treble clef and a '1' indicating common time. It features a series of notes: a solid black circle (la), an open circle (si), a solid black circle (do), a solid black circle with a sharp sign (do#), an open circle (ré), a solid black circle (mi), a solid black circle with a sharp sign (fa#), an open circle (sol), a solid black circle with a sharp sign (sol#), a solid black circle (la), another solid black circle (la), an open circle (si), a solid black circle (do), a solid black circle with a sharp sign (do#), an open circle (ré), and a solid black circle (mi). Below the staff, the corresponding notes are labeled with their names in French: la, si, do, do#, ré, mi, fa#, sol, sol#, la, la, si, do, do#, ré, mi. Vertical lines connect each note name to its corresponding position on the grid. The grid consists of five horizontal rows and ten vertical columns, with black dots representing closed holes and white circles representing open holes. The first column has two black dots. The second column has one black dot and one white circle. The third column has one black dot. The fourth column has one white circle. The fifth column has two black dots. The sixth column has one black dot and one white circle. The seventh column has one black dot. The eighth column has one white circle. The ninth column has one black dot. The tenth column has two black dots. The eleventh column has one white circle. The twelfth column has one black dot.